Press Release

 IBB Andersia Hotel is official sponsor of ATP International Tennis Tournament Poznan Porsche Open 2010

Once again IBB Andersia Hotel sponsors one of the most prestigious sport events, the seventh edition of the ATP International Tennis Tournament Poznan Porsche Open 2010 . Most of the participants of the tournament will be accommodated in this hotel. The convenient location as well as the wellness and spa facilities are the most important aspects of the choice of hotel by the organizer.

* IBB Andersia Hotel is a modern hotel located in the center of the city, which from its opening is involved in supporting sports activities in Poznan, and for a second time this tennis tournament in Poznan. Director of IBB Andersia Hotel, Marcin Wozniak, stresses the importance of the Poznan Porsche Open for the hotel: "Tennis is a high class sport, that also adds more prestige to our hotel. We have been always supporting various sport events as well as individual athletes. "

It is worth recalling that the IBB Andersia Hotel founded a special award for outstanding rower, Julia Michalska - winner of the Athlete of the Year Award 2009. She was awarded with a pass to the Harmonia Spa, located in the hotel and offering a fitness center, swimming pool, sauna and other attractions. "In this way we show our concern for a healthy athletes representing our city all year" Wozniak added.

Besides sponsorship, hotel hosts each year the judges of the canoe events, including the next World Championships in canoeing, which will be held late August. Permanent hotel guests are also rowing, basketball or football teams playing at the stadium at Bułgarska street. From the wonderful banqueting area benefit the organisers of the Ball of the Athlete and Footballplayer, who for several years, organize a large party during carnival season.
